Many have authored published research and worked at the NIH and other research centers. We have Fulbright and Goldwater Scholars. Others have completed significant work as EMTs and CNAs, served in the military, spent time as teachers, and volunteered with numerous organizations such as The Red Cross, Habitat for Humanity, Global Brigades, and clinics, FQHCs, and community outreach programs in the United States and abroad. All have demonstrated a deep commitment to medicine and to the characteristics Brown University values: humanism, service, compassion, and the intention to lead lives of purpose and integrity.
