If prompted, choose Launch Desktop or Launch Zoom after a moment if it doesn't just begin.

You'll see a window and need to wait for the interviewer to begin the interview. Please be patient; they may be on another interview before yours.

Computer Audio would be the best option for the audio, when prompted.

You'll see a Time Remaining countdown in the top-right corner, just as a helpful reminder. You will not be cut off if you go over your 30-minute interview slot; your interviewer will be ending the interview manually.
